Senior Services of Henry County Parks and Recreation provides transportation services to older adults, particularly those who are frail or in the greatest economic and social need, who reside in rural areas in Henry County, and are 60 years of age and older. Preference is given to older adults, transportation disadvantaged, and seniors with disabilities. Transportation is available on a first-come, first-served basis for medical appointments, grocery shopping, and occasional recreational trips.

Please call (276) 634-4644 at least two business days before the requested date of transportation.

There are five vehicles for transportation.
