The Regenesiis Program offers several homes for men and women who are being set free from substance abuse and other 'at risk behavior". Each home has a full time ministry leader who oversees the home. The residency program is disciplined and structured with multiple layers of accountability that provide the resident with biblical principles.

The Esther House is a female residential home. The House of James is a male residential home.

Minimal requirements are:

Minimum of 6 months commitment

Desire for true change

To have a teachable spirit
