YMCA of Greater Richmond offers a wide range of food, fellowship, and social opportunities for active older adults. Activities vary by branch but include card games, art groups, bingo, Bunco, board games, chess, bocce ball, group knitting sessions, Bible study, luncheons, book clubs, art classes, birthday socials, trips, fall prevention program, guest speakers and much more. The programs give older adults the opportunities to maintain a healthy social lifestyle and to grow in spirit, mind, and body.

There are 17 locations in the Greater Richmond area. Visit Find a YMCA Location to find a YMCA near you.

These classes are designed for adults aged 55 years and older but are open to all members of the YMCA.
