

Personal care and companion services can offer much needed support for older adults and their families. Help is available for various tasks such as self-care and hygiene, food preparation, housekeeping, and errands and shopping. Companion services provide socialization, support, and companionship.

---

View PDF